When reading the above table, remember that all pups follow their own guide, and grow at their own rate.

Your breeder will be able to help you with what is average for their lines.

NOTE: Some Great Danes may actually weigh less / be smaller than this chart indicates & a few may weigh more, however more in this case may mean the pup is being overfed and / or growing too fast.

If not, the dog may be 'over-boned' – so then they really then need to stay slim, as heavier boned dogs can be more prone to joint & bone problems.

Remember: if you're putting your dog in the show ring, the only minimum requirement under the standard is 28"/71.7cm (height) for females & 30"/76.2cm (height) for males (and that was generally intended to apply specifically to adult Great Danes, and most registered Great Danes achieve this minimum height as puppies in the first year).
